

ChinaEdu Corporation Announces Share Repurchase Program

BEIJING, CHINA –June 13, 2011 – ChinaEdu Corporation (NASDAQ: CEDU) (“ChinaEdu” or the “Company”), a leading online education services provider in China, today announced today announced that its board of directors has approved a share repurchase program.

Under the terms of the repurchase program, the Company is authorized, but not obligated, to repurchase up to US$10 million worth of its own American Depositary Shares (“ADSs”). The repurchases may be made from time to time over a period of 24 months. The method, timing and amount of any repurchase will depend on market conditions, the trading price of the ADSs and other factors. Such repurchases will be subject to, and executed in compliance with, relevant rules under United States securities regulations. The share repurchase program may be suspended, modified or discontinued at any time. The share repurchase program will be funded with the Company’s available working capital.

Julia Huang, ChinaEdu Corporation chairman and chief executive officer said, “The board and management team’s decision to repurchase shares reflects our joint belief that that current share price levels do not accurately reflect the fundamental strength of the our business. We are confident that our management team will continue to leverage our core expertise in education and our nationally recognized brand name to develop new revenue streams, allowing the company access to the tremendous opportunities presented by the Chinese education market.”
